Accurate & Detail-Driven

If it's not done correctly, it can mean significant delays for you, costing you valuable time and money. MD Services has earned an outstanding reputation for our attention to detail which ensures prompt processing of your paperwork.

"As a vascular surgeon, I consider myself as having excellent attention to details. I like using MD Services because they are just as careful and detail-oriented as I am. If you want your medical credentialing done the right way, MD Services is the company to call."

- Dr. E. Ladenheim, Fresno, CA

Confidential. Committed. Caring.

Confidentiality is paramount. Your information is provided only to the health plans for the purpose of credentialing – nobody else. We're committed to complete client satisfaction, which includes quick responses to your questions and concerns. We care about doing it right the first time, every time, because we recognize how important proper medical credentialing is to your practice.

Our Goal: To become "your credentialing company" for all your needs!

"For several years, MD Services has assisted us with credentialing for our providers, insurance contracting, and working with the insurance companies on difficult-to-solve problems. They have excellent follow through and the strength needed to deal with the insurance companies."
